(d) if so, the details thereof; and

(e) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (SHRI KAMAL NATH): (a) to (e) in the new patent regime, effective from 1st January, 2005, there is no proposal to set up separate courts to deal with issues connected with patents and intellectual property rights. However, in view of the specialised nature of the work, Government has set up an Intellectual Property Appellate Board as an appellate forum against orders of the Registrar of Trade Marks and also the Registrar of Geographical Indications. Its jurisdiction is further proposed to be extended to the decisions of the Controller of Patents under the Indian Patent Act.
